

Thai Massage Practitioner Training

Terms and Conditions

These kind of therapeutic courses can be transformational and students should be prepared to embark upon an internal process that may be challenging at times – so a sound state of mental health is required along with a commitment to see the process through from beginning to end. During the course, we are moving bodies of all different shapes and sizes so a certain level of physical health and strength is also required.

The Yoga Garden reserves the right to ask any student to leave the course, without refund, at any time, if they are found to be causing themselves or the group harm, harassment or disturbance or if they are found to be in an unsafe state of body or mind.

Once the course has started, The Yoga Garden issues no refunds for trainings. In the case of unexpected illness, students must recourse to their medical insurers for refunds for the course of the training. In the case of compassionate grounds, if there is adequate space, students may transfer their fee to another course, however this is at the discretion of The Yoga Garden.

Cancelation Policy

If a student decides to cancel their place on a training after they have been accepted on the course, the following fees will be due:

60 + days prior to the start of training £300 deposit only

30-60 days prior to the start date 50% of total price

30 days or less 100% of total price

By reading this page and signing up for The Yoga Garden Thai Massage Practitioner Training Programme, I agree to the terms and conditions of the training outlined here and I agree to take full responsibility for myself and my actions during my participation in the activities of this training course at The Yoga Garden, West Sussex, UK and also during any free time during the training timetable.
